Lent Message

We are on Third Sunday of lent season. Lent brings the death and resurrection of the Lord, more insistently into the horizon of our lives. Before the Lord, we are all weak and needy, poor in who we are, rich in him. Grateful for our various callings and rejoicing in that poverty that opens us to God's grace, let us observe Lent together in Prayer, Penance and Almsgiving.

This week we emphasis on PRAYER. Prayer is a communication between God and humans. Just as we talk, share and listen with our friends about what is happening in our lives, so we talk, share and listen with our God. Prayer is the raising of one's mind, heart and action to God. Our prayers can be expressed in different ways, such as using words and songs, in imagination and silence, and ritually or spontaneously. At home, church, work place, gardens, our cars, or while in the shower, which means no limitation for us to pray.

One of the characteristics of prayers that with the right intention every moment of the day—all our hopes, works, joys, and sufferings—can become our prayers. May god bless you.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Pathrose Champakkara
